Tutor - Katie Sollohub

Dates: Wed 8 - Fri 10 Jan 2025

Time: 9.30-4.30 each day

Cost: £330*

Location: Seawhite Studio

Start the New Year with this exciting 3 day course in the Seawhite Studio, working with the wonderful Eve, dressed in her own dynamic and inspirational costumes, designed to adorn and accentuate the body, turning the studio into our very own catwalk!

Painting from the clothed figure means we will be looking at colour, texture and pattern as much as form and flesh. Celebrate the way fabric adorns the figure, how it changes as it wraps around form, glimpses of flesh, the features of the face emerging from folds and frills.

Using inspiring creative processes you will make a series of quick studies from the figure in movement, as a warm up, reacquainting yourself with the body as a subject using the fluidity of paint to express the lyrical qualities, dance like. You will then start 2 or 3 longer paintings in which you will start to use the language of paint to describe the texture, direction and weight of cloth, how it shrouds, conceals, and reveals the form underneath. You will be encouraged to play and experiment, not relying simply on observation, so that the paintings you begin to make will be fresh and exciting, open to change.

We will look at artists including Matisse, Bonnard, Vuillard, Chantal Joffe, Alice Neal, and Jennifer Packer for inspiration.

Eve is in her second year of Theatre and Costume Design at Wimbledon College of Art

COURSE MATERIALS

The studio has primed canvas on a roll and large paper for you to purchase as you require.

You will need to bring: a generous number of brushes. Make sure you have at least 6 or so large decorating size brushes as well as standard smaller brushes to work with and lots of large tubes or pots of paint. Bring lots of soft cotton rags, any palette or scraping tools too. With either oils or acrylics we recommend that you have plenty of mediums;

For oils you will need Solvent. Please make sure it is odourless. We use Shelsol T which you can order from Jacksons. <https://www.jacksonsart.com/jackson-s-shellsol-t-odourless-solvent-2500ml>
To speed up the drying time of the paint you can use a medium that you can make using Shelsol T and Linseed Stand Oil (50/50 mix).

For acrylics we suggest you use a medium to increase the flow. Liquitex is a good brand.

<https://www.jacksonsart.com/liquitex-pouring-medium> (really makes fantastic puddles and flowing paint) www.jacksonsart.com/liquitex-super-heavy-gel-mediums (Good for thickening and making paint sculptural without use lots of paint.)

www.jacksonsart.com/liquitex-fluid-gloss-medium (A good all rounder for making the paint flow and add gloss)

A guide for the colours you bring for either acrylics or oils:

Titanium White (lots of it), Lemon yellow, Cadmium Yellow, Indian Yellow, Vermillion, Alizarin Crimson, Magenta, Cobalt Blue, Ultramarine and Phthalo Blue.

If you like working with Oil Sticks then please bring those too. If you like using mix media with your acrylics then please do bring pastels, either oils or chalk, to add into the mix.

We have plenty of large palettes you can use at the studio as well as pots for water and solvent, and mixing colours.

THE SEAWHITE SHOP: The shop is open Monday – Friday from 9 am - 4.45 pm and 9am – 12 noon on Saturdays. There is a fridge and also a microwave. If you need to buy some lunch there is a bakery/sandwich shop in the middle of Partridge Green that sells sandwiches, salads and hot food.
