

Drawing and Painting The Head – Self Portraits

Tutor Emily Ball (live streaming from the Seawhite Studio in Partridge Green)

Dates – December 13th - 15th 2021 (Monday - Wednesday)

Course fee - £150

Drawing and painting self-portraits, looking at yourself in the mirror, is a grounding, challenging and invigorating experience. You are in good company as many of the great painters in history made Self Portraits. You are free to invent and take risks, as there is no one to offend or judge the likeness other than yourself. It is a chance to contemplate, scrutinise and explore how to capture more than just a likeness; to convey with feeling the mood of the gaze, to enjoy the sculptural qualities of the subject and materials. During this 3 day course Emily will have a large mirror in her studio so that she can draw and paint herself, live on camera, to demonstrate and also work alongside you. She will lead you through processes that help you become confident at manipulating the materials so that they become the subject. She will suggest ways of layering marks and shapes taken from observation to help you invent more expressive ways of making the features of the face. A fleeting glance, the tilt of the head, rubbing through, redrawing and editing provide a fertile ground, with its layered materials and moments, to offer you powerful images that hold your gaze.

By the end of the 3 days you will have lots of drawings and painted studies that will be full of good material for many paintings. You will also have begun at least two paintings. Emily will encourage you to continue these paintings after the course has finished.

Artists' work that might inspire you: Matisse, Picasso, Chantal Joffe, Maggie Hambling, Stephen Chambers ('The Court of Redonda' series), , Bonnard self portraits, John Skinner, Frank Auerbach, Katie Sollohub, Francis Bacon, Dennis Creffied, David Bomberg and the Rembrandt late paintings.

Drawing and Painting The Head – Self Portraits

Day one: Monday 13th of December 2021

Time	Activity
10 - 12	Introduction and warm up. Drawing yourself in the mirror. Finding out as you draw. Using drawing exercises for this 2 hour session to look and play with how to create a feeling of the head and features, be direct and search out the image. Drawing in black and white using charcoal, rubber and white chalk to start with and also making colour studies. Drawing in your own time and studio for the rest of the day. At 4.30/5pm photograph your work and email just 2 images to gallery@emilyball.net Please make sure that the files are not too big, are attachments and jpegs.

Day two: Tuesday 14th of December 2021

Time	Activity
10 - 12	Review the work from the previous day and start paintings. Creating the equivalent qualities of marks in your drawings with paint and colour. We will work on at least 2 paintings today, going back and forth between them; layering editing, inventing and practising looking for the image. Continue making studies in your own time and studio for the rest of the day. At 4.30/5pm photograph your work and email just 2 images to gallery@emilyball.net Please make sure that the files are not too big, are attachments and jpegs.

Day three: Wednesday 15th of December 2021

Time	Activity
10 - 12	Working from your drawings and continuing the paintings. Reviewing the progress of the paintings from the previous day and starting with making painted studies of the paintings. Making the gaze and mouth full of expression. Emphasizing and intensifying, changing the painting until this appears. Painting in your own time and studio for the rest of the day. At 4.30/5pm photograph your work and email just 2 images to gallery@emilyball.net Please make sure that the files are not too big, are attachments and jpegs.

Course details

- A daily 2 hour live group tutorial each morning from 10 – 12. Emily will do demonstrations and give processes and guided exercises. From 12 – 12.15 there is the opportunity for a question and answer session
- Each session will be recorded. We can provide you with a link so that you can watch the workshop again. (This link will only be available for 30 days after the course ends).
- Emily will offer suggestions as to how you might continue working on your own for the rest of the day.
- At the end of each day, 4.30/5pm, you will be encouraged to email us just 2 photos of the work that you have done that day. Please email to gallery@emilyball.net These will then be put into a gallery on the website for the whole group to see. This also gives the tutor the opportunity to look at your work and tailor the workshop to every ones needs. To find the course galleries on the website use this link
- <https://emilyballatseawhite.co.uk/course-gallery/course-gallery.html>
- There is a Facebook group page created for students on this course. You can add photos of your work here and give each other feedback. Please add a friends request to Drawing and Painting the Head online
- How much work you do is up to you, but we have found that these untutored sessions where people are working in their own space to be an invaluable bonus to the online courses - you are guided into the process, but then essentially, you are working alone in your space, which is after all where most of us work, and often get stuck. By working in this way for 3 consecutive days you might find some really creative breakthroughs occurring.
- At the end of the course Emily will review the work that you have done and give you feedback about the strengths in your work and suggestions for how to go forward.

Online live sessions

We will be using Zoom for our Video Communication. It is really easy to use. If you are not familiar with it then perhaps practise with family and friends. You will be emailed a password and login to enable you to join the meeting at the specified time. This will be the same each of the 4 days. Emily will be online from 9.30 am so you can check in earlier than 10 am if you wish.

After the course if you would like one to one feedback with Emily using Zoom she would be very happy to book you an appointment. Please arrange this with Emily and contact her via emily@emilyball.net The cost of this tutorial will be £35 for a half hour meeting.

How students need to prepare

You will need to organise your work space.

Make sure that you have enough room to work, and some wall space to put up studies and paintings as you go through the week. Set up your mirror and consider the light quality and backdrop that you prefer.

Will you be working at an easel, flat on a table, on the floor or straight onto the wall? Or perhaps a mixture of all of these, space permitting. Consider how you would like to use your space in a way that feels inspiring and allows room for plenty of experimentation. Be organised. It will really help the flow of your work and keep your head clear too.

If you need to stock up with materials then Seawhite can deliver an order to you. If you use the code EB10 you will receive a 10% discount when you purchase materials through Artesaver <https://www.artesaver.co.uk/>

Gather and prepare your materials.

Paper

- You will need possibly 12 sheets of cartridge paper to do some drawn studies on. Size and weight of paper is not critical. What ever you can get your hands on. If you can work large, A1, then it would encourage a spacious, freer and more physical approach to your work. I will be working on A1, 220 gms cartridge paper.

You may wish to paint on paper:

- With acrylics make sure the paper is no less that 300gms in weight. To make finished paintings you will need at least 3 of the same size and shape, plus a few sheets for painted studies too.
- I work in oils and my favourite paper to paint on is Arches Oil Paper. This is already sized and sealed. However, the paper does not necessarily need to be sized or primed. Again the heavier and better quality paper is preferable. It is actually rather lovely working straight onto unsealed paper in oils. It stains and dries very quickly. The only thing you must be aware of is that with thick areas of paint, in time, there will be an oily halo appear around the paint, as the oil leaches into the surrounding bare paper. This is not something I dislike, but just so you know.

If you prefer to paint on Canvas or Board

Canvas

Stretched canvas on a frame, or loose primed canvas off a roll (this could be wrapped around a board to give a firm surface to work on or stapled to the wall). Again 3 of the same shape and size required, as you will be working series. The size is up to you. Be as practical and ambitious as you need to be.

Boards to paint on

Prepared artists boards are fine.

Pieces of MDF from your shed or garage. Priming might be a good idea but some artists rather like the unprimed surface too.

Smooth cardboard or mountboard are options too.

(3 of the same shape and size required, as you will be working series).

Paints and other materials

A guide to what colours to use in both acrylics and oils

The following list of colours enable you mix a fantastic range of colours. (No need to buy earth colours or greens).

Titanium White, Lemon Yellow, Cadmium Yellow, Indian Yellow, Cadmium Red or Vermillion, Alizarin Crimson, Magenta, Cobalt Blue, Cerulean Blue, Ultramarine Blue, Indigo, Cobalt Violet.

I also frequently use Oil Sticks as well as the paint.

Mediums and equipment for oils and acrylics

Oils - In my own studio I never use White spirit or Turpentine. It is highly toxic and smelly. I recommend Shellsol T which you can buy from Jacksons Art supplies of A P Fitzpatrick (this is a solvent which is an alternative to white spirit to clean your brushes with and thin the oil paint). I recommend that you use a 'Drying medium' (to speed up the drying time). I use a 50/50 mix of Linseed stand oil and Shellsol T. I find this mix odourless and very effective. If you cannot get hold of either of these open all your doors and windows to get lots of ventilation and use the mediums you already have.

Lots of Rags - I use rags to paint with a lot. So a good supply of cotton rags are essential.

Acrylics

Ideally acrylics should be diluted with acrylic mediums NOT water. So please have some acrylic mediums that say they will increase the flow and transparency of the paint. Some offer the option of increasing the gloss as well. That is up to you. I quite like glossy but some artists prefer matt.

Brushes for Oils and Acrylics

It is important to have lots of brushes in a wide variety of shapes and sizes. Avoid having too many flat brushes instead buy Filberts, Rounds, Liners/Riggers. For bigger brushes I frequently go to hardware and decorating shops. Good makes are Princeton and Omega for large brushes. You will definitely need a couple of rigger brushes. These are traditionally used for water colour and have very long fine bristles, fantastic for delicate continuous lines. I recommend a few palette knives too, of differing shapes and sizes. Again use what you can get hold of in this situation.

Other materials

You will be making drawings as well as painting so it would be helpful to have;

Charcoal, an eraser, soft pencils, felt tip pens, oil sticks (if you have them).

By all means use mixed media too particularly with acrylic paints; inks, oil sticks, chalk and oil pastels, felt tip pens etc.

Masking tape, a glue stick and scissors will also be useful.
